

CONMED Corporation Appoints Celine Martin and Jeff Mirviss to its Board of Directors

May 20, 2026

LARGO, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--May 20, 2026-- CONMED Corporation (NYSE: CNMD) today announced the appointment of Celine Martin and Jeff Mirviss to its Board of Directors ("Board"), effective July 1, 2026. Ms. Martin will serve as a member of the Audit Committee and the Strategy Committee, and Mr. Mirviss will serve as a member of the Compensation Committee and the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. In connection with these appointments, CONMED is increasing the size of its Board to include a total of nine directors.

"My fellow directors and I are delighted to welcome Celine Martin and Jeff Mirviss to the Board, both highly accomplished leaders with extensive experience developed at two of the largest companies in the healthcare industry," said LaVerne Council, Chair of CONMED's Board of Directors. "Celine joins our Board following a 30-year career at Johnson & Johnson, with deep global leadership experience in MedTech and a track record of driving innovation and growth. Likewise, Jeff possesses nearly 30 years of experience at Boston Scientific, where he led complex, global medical device businesses with operational and commercial excellence. Their insight and expertise will be invaluable to the Board as we advance CONMED's long-term strategy."

"Celine and Jeff are outstanding additions to the Board," said Patrick Beyer, President and Chief Executive Officer of CONMED. "Celine's global strategic leadership and experience scaling high growth medical technology businesses, combined with Jeff's expertise in portfolio leadership and execution across large, global organizations, will strengthen our governance and support our continued focus on delivering long-term value for patients, customers, and shareholders."

Over three decades at Johnson & Johnson, both in the U.S. and internationally, Ms. Martin played a vital role in advancing the ambition of J&J MedTech, developing new categories and advancing standard of care for atrial fibrillation, stroke, and minimally invasive surgery. Most recently, she served as Company Group Chairman leading the Cardiovascular & Specialty Solutions ("CSS") Group from 2022 to 2025. As a member of the J&J MedTech leadership team, she ran a diverse portfolio of high growth businesses including Electrophysiology, Neurovascular Intervention, Ear Nose and Throat, and Breast Aesthetics. Before that, Ms. Martin led the Ethicon Endo Surgery business where she was instrumental in establishing the Robotic and Digital Surgery portfolio foundations. Ms. Martin holds an MBA from Wake Forest University and a graduate degree in marketing from Normandy Business School. Ms. Martin also serves on the Board of Directors at H.B. Fuller.

Mr. Mirviss brings more than 35 years of healthcare industry leadership experience. Most recently, he served as Executive Vice President and Global President of Peripheral Interventions at Boston Scientific from 2020 to 2025, where he led a multi-billion dollar global business focused on therapies for vascular disease and cancer. In this role, he also had leadership responsibility for the Company's Latin America and Canada regions, as well as its Government Affairs function. Previously, Mr. Mirviss served as Senior Vice President and Global President of Peripheral Interventions from 2013 to 2020, and as Global President of Peripheral Interventions from 2011 to 2013. Prior to these roles, Mr. Mirviss held positions of increasing responsibility at Boston Scientific, including Group Vice President of Global Marketing for the Company's Cardiology, Rhythm and Vascular businesses. Mr. Mirviss holds a B.I.S. in Marketing from the University of Minnesota and an MBA from the University of St. Thomas.
