Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

As disclosed in the Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006, in November 2003, CONMED Corporation (the "Company") commenced litigation against Johnson & Johnson and several of its subsidiaries, including Ethicon, Inc. for violations of federal and state antitrust laws. The lawsuit claims that Johnson & Johnson engaged in illegal and anticompetitive conduct with respect to sales of product used in endoscopic surgery, resulting in higher prices to consumers and the exclusion of competition. The Company has sought relief which includes an injunction restraining Johnson & Johnson from continuing its anticompetitive practice as well as receiving the maximum amount of damages allowed by law. In October 2005, Johnson & Johnson filed a motion for summary judgment and the hearing on the motion was held on December 16, 2005.

The Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders is scheduled to take place on Tuesday, May 16, 2006 and, in anticipation that there may be questions regarding the status of the litigation against Johnson & Johnson, the Company is providing the following update on the status of the lawsuit.

On May 2, 2006, the court issued an order denying Johnson & Johnson's motion for summary judgment. The Court has scheduled a pre-trial conference for June 2006. In its order, the Court found that there are genuine issues of material fact and that summary judgment was therefore not appropriate. The order does not represent a determination on the merits with respect to the Company's claims against Johnson & Johnson, but rather represents a ruling that the Company has produced sufficient evidence to warrant submitting the case to a jury. The Company believes that its claims are well-grounded in fact and law, but there can be no assurance that it will be successful in its claims in a trial before a jury.
