GLASS LEWIS SUPPORTS VOCE CAPITAL'S CALL FOR FURTHER CHANGE AT CONMED

Recommends Shareholders Elect Voce Nominees James W. Green and Joshua H. Levine by Voting on the WHITE Proxy Card

SAN FRANCISCO – August 28, 2014 – Voce Capital Management LLC (“Voce”) announced today that Glass Lewis & Co. (“Glass Lewis”), a leading independent proxy advisory firm, has recommended shareholders elect Voce nominees James W. Green and Joshua H. Levine at the annual shareholder meeting of CONMED Corporation (“ConMed” or the “Company”) (Nasdaq:CNMD) on September 10, 2014.

In its report, Glass Lewis stated that the recent changes by ConMed “were made largely in response to [Voce] as opposed to the board taking truly proactive steps.” In spite of the changes, Voce “has put forth a compelling case to justify the election of... Nominees Green and Levine, both of whom have extensive industry experience that we believe should be of great benefit to the Company, particularly considering the transitional leadership period the Company is currently going through.”

Glass Lewis notes that “most, if not all, of [Voce’s nominees] appear to us to arguably have stronger qualifications than those of the incumbent directors that [Voce] is seeking to remove.” Glass Lewis further details the deficiencies in the ConMed’s nominees with the following arguments:

- “Ms. Golden, Mr. Mandia and Mr. Lande have no relevant industry experience outside of their service on the Company’s board.”
- Ms. Golden’s “sole external qualification being on the Company’s board,” her accounting background, is “somewhat redundant”
- “[There is] significant doubt as to the applicability of Mr. Mandia’s experience to the Company”

J. Daniel Plants, Voce’s Managing Partner, stated: “We are gratified to see that Glass Lewis shares our view that further changes are needed at ConMed and supports the election of Jim Green and Josh Levine to the Board. Of course, we continue to believe all of our nominees bring much needed additional experience and skills to the Board.”

Glass Lewis specifically recommended that shareholders vote on the WHITE proxy card and that they not vote on the management card. Voce continues to encourage its fellow shareholders to execute and return the WHITE proxy card. In addition to Messrs. Green and Levine, Voce's third nominee is J. Daniel Plants, Managing Partner of Voce and a former investment banking executive at Goldman Sachs and JPMorgan.
