

CONMED Corporation Urges Shareholders to Vote Today FOR ALL CONMED's Director Nominees on the GOLD Proxy Card

September 8, 2014 8:01 AM ET

UTICA, N.Y., Sept. 8, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- CONMED Corporation (Nasdaq:CNMD) today urged shareholders to vote FOR ALL of the Company's eight highly qualified and experienced director nominees -- Brian Concannon, Charles Farkas, Jo Ann Golden, Curt Hartman, Dirk Kuyper, Jerome Lande, Stephen Mandia and Mark Tryniski -- at the Company's upcoming Annual Meeting of Shareholders on September 10, 2014.

Time is short and shareholders are encouraged to vote the GOLD proxy card today -- no matter how many shares they own. Even if shareholders have already voted using the white proxy card, they have the right to change their vote by using the GOLD proxy card in support of CONMED's director nominees as well as supporting the other proposals contained in the definitive proxy materials. Only the last-dated proxy card will count.

Shareholders are encouraged to vote by telephone or Internet according to the instructions on the GOLD proxy card. Voting by telephone or Internet is the best way for shareholders to ensure that their votes will be counted. Shareholders who have questions or need assistance voting their shares, or wish to change a prior vote of their shares, may call Innisfree M&A Incorporated, CONMED's proxy solicitor, toll-free at (888) 750-5834.

VOTE THE GOLD PROXY CARD FOR THE CONMED BOARD THAT HAS ALREADY IMPLEMENTED SWEEPING CHANGES

The significant changes CONMED has already made illustrate that the Board is willing to listen to shareholders, not afraid to take bold action, and is committed to driving sustainable shareholder value creation. Since the last Annual Meeting, CONMED has thoroughly revamped its leadership, with a new Interim CEO, a reconstituted Board of Directors, the retirement of the founding family and two longstanding directors, which dramatically changed the "status quo". -- CONMED's new leadership is focused on improving operating performance to create additional value for shareholders over the short and long term.

Importantly, two leading independent proxy advisory firms, -- Institutional Shareholder Services and Egan-Jones Proxy Services, have both recommended that CONMED shareholders vote on the GOLD proxy card for the Company's eight nominees.

While the Board is confident that it has directors that bring the right skills and expertise needed to lead during this time, CONMED will continue to proactively seek to improve the Board's composition and skillsets as needed. -- The focus is now on improved execution.

VOCE'S NOMINEES SHOULD NOT BE ELECTED

Voce has chosen to pursue a costly and disruptive proxy contest to install three of its own nominees to the Board. With an ownership stake of less than 0.5% of the Company's outstanding common stock, Voce is seeking three seats on the Board, or 37.5% of the Board; this would be grossly disproportionate to its ownership stake. Voce has neither articulated a plan nor offered any ideas to create value for all CONMED shareholders that have not already been considered or implemented.

Voce's nominees do not add any additional diversity of experience or differentiated skills that would benefit the CONMED Board. Voce's nominees would bring duplicative experience to CONMED's current Board, which already has four current or former public company CEO's, three from the medical device industry, and two specifically from the orthopedics industry. Additionally, James Green and Joshua Levine have no experience in the orthopedic industry and oversee companies that are significantly smaller than CONMED.

Voce's actions make it clear that Voce is only interested in pursuing its self-serving agenda, irrespective of the cost to all other CONMED shareholders.

VOTE THE GOLD PROXY CARD TODAY

CONMED shareholders are reminded that their vote is important. Whether or not shareholders plan to attend the Annual Meeting, they have an opportunity to protect their investment in CONMED by voting FOR CONMED's eight director nominees using the GOLD proxy card today.
